

About

Everyone enjoyed the HUGE Shropshire Oktoberfest in Shrewsbury's Quarry Park, so we have decided to do it all again in the sunshine! Introducing our brand new festival: Shropshire Pub in the Park!

If you enjoy chilling out in a beer garden with your mates, then prepare to have that feeling multiplied!

Thirsty? Good – you'll need to be! There will be over 150 different drinks to choose from. Read on to discover all the local brewers and drinks producers who will be serving up their thirst-quenching drinks. There will be real ales, cider, lager, cocktails, wine, rum, pimm's and of course lots of gin!

Shropshire Pub in the Park will take over the QEII Arena in Telford Town Park. We have signed up some amazing bands for our HUGE live music stage and we promise you will dance the night away.

Thanks to Volvo Shrewsbury you better warm-up your vocal chords for our very own Carpool Karaoke!

There won't just be barrels of beers, we promise a barrel of laughs with the comedy club! We are working with some of the funniest comedians on the circuit to give you the best entertainment while you enjoy a pint or two.

We will bring you the best in drink, music and comedy, polished off with the best street food to tantalise your taste buds. There will be gourmet burgers, posh chips, wood fired pizza and much more, ensuring you will be catered for the whole day through.

The festival will be in the huge arena adjacent to Telford Town Park, with the train station an 8 minute walk away, and plenty of car parks and buses within a 5 minute walk.

Live Music

FRIDAY 7TH

Friday night is kicking off with the soulful and powerful voice of Katie Brisbane. Next up, there will be Jake Nelson with his distinctive sound. Crowds will rock out to indie/alternative band Black Bear Kiss, featuring their trademark heavy riffs, strong catchy vocals and funky bass. Lost the Plot cover anything that can be stripped down and belted out with energy, enthusiasm and more than a fair share of audience participation - expect the unexpected!

Finally we're SO excited that rounding off the night's musical entertainment are the Dirty Rockin' Scoundrels. They will bring you the best rock 'n' roll music from the 50s and 60s, with an energetic live show that is guaranteed to rock your socks off!

SATURDAY 8TH

We've got a WHOLE day of live music for you! From rockers to solo performers, there will be something for everyone. Starting off the day we have the The Adrenaline Rush, a new young band of awesome pure talent

Up next are The List to take you through the lunchtime session.

Following them there is Radio Rumours, a great band who play a selection of modern classics and crowd favourites. Eternity Road will be playing the main stage with their lively and energetic set.

Emma Linley will sing music from the soul. Audiences are captivated by her bluesy, pure and raw vocal tones. Custard Connection will change up the pace when they take to the stage with high energy dance floor fillers, bang-up-to-date chart hits, and dance classics from the 90's to now. Following them we have Chasing August who are an indie band with a fresh, authentic sound, reminiscent of the 00's indie music era. Taking us into the evening we have the HMV Band, providing a versatile and eclectic mix of music from the last sixty years, covering pop, rock, blues and ballads. Next up, young four-piece The Paprika Blues Band bring us their repertoire of originals combined with well-known covers for an energetic performance. Rounding off the day's live music extravaganza are four piece funk, pop and blues cover band - Bouncing Betty. Our headline act will entertain festivalgoers of all ages with their varied setlist and infectious sounds, keeping you singing and dancing all night long!
